

K-LOVE is a safe harbor for my family and local community. They emphasize family values and Biblical principles that make a difference for eternity's sake. To replace this station with a LPFM would be a grave mistake. The values and ethics they convey make our local community a safer place with compassionate hearts.